

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505

Mr. Wilfred H. Rommel
Assistant Director for Legislative Reference
Office of Management and Budget
Washington, D. C. 20503

Dear Mr. Rommel:

This submits proposed legislation in accordance with Bureau of the Budget Circular No. A-19, revised. Enclosed are four copies of a draft bill, "To amend the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees, as amended, and for other purposes." Also enclosed are copies of a sectional analysis, a comparison with existing law, and a draft of the letter of transmittal to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The proposed legislation would bring the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees, as amended, into conformity with changes made by P. L. 91-658 in the Civil Service retirement system as follows:

a. Widowers of deceased female participants are accorded the same treatment as widows of deceased male participants. (Sections 1 and 4)

b. Survivor ^{Widow} annuity protection is extended to ^{Certain} ~~widow or widower~~ ^{Certain} who marries ^{Certain} ~~a retired annuitant~~ following his retirement. (Sections 2 and 3) ILLEGIB

c. Section 5 provides effective dates in phase with those established for the Civil Service retirement system for the above changes.

The provisions of the Civil Service retirement system changed by P. L. 91-658 form the basis for comparable provisions in the CIA Retirement Act. The change in fundamental concept reflected in the new law applies with equal validity to the CIA retirement system. Failure to keep pace would result in inequities in survivorship cases and would tend to undermine the effectiveness of the CIA Retirement Act.

Advice is requested as to whether there is any objection to the submission of the proposed legislation to the Congress from the standpoint of the Administration's program.

Sincerely,

John M. Maury
Legislative Counsel

SECTIONAL ANALYSIS

Section 1 removes dependency requirements from the definition of the term "widower". This means that, with respect to survivor benefits, widowers of female participants or retirees will be accorded the same treatment as widows of deceased male participants or retirees. Retained in the definition is the requirement that a widower be married at least two years immediately preceding the death of the retiree or participant, or be a parent of a child born of the marriage -- the same conditions that apply to a "widow".

Section 2 does four things:

--First, it amends the current provision for annuity for surviving spouse to whom the retiree is married at the time of retirement by authorizing payment of that annuity to a subsequent spouse. The spouse acquired after retirement must qualify as a widow or widower as those terms are defined in Section 204 of the Act as amended by section 1 of the bill.

--Second, it authorizes a survivor annuity for a widow or widower of a retiree who was unmarried at the time of retirement, subject to the election of a reduced annuity for this purpose by the retiree pursuant to section 3 of the bill.

--Third, it requires the surviving spouse, widow or widower, to elect between the benefits afforded under section 2 of the bill and any other entitlements to survivor benefits from a retirement system for Government employees.

--Finally, it provides for the commencement and termination date for the survivor annuities provided under section 2 of the bill.

Section 3 provides a retiree who is unmarried at the time of retirement with an irrevocable election to select a reduced annuity and provide, under section 2 of the bill, survivorship protection for a spouse acquired after retirement. The election must be received within one year after the marriage, and voids any election made at the time of retirement for a survivor annuity for an individual with an insurable interest as authorized under current law (Section 221 of the Act). The retiree's annuity is paid at the reduced rate starting with the first day of the month following receipt of the election.

Section 4 changes the "Death in Service" provisions of the Act (Section 232) to remove the dependency requirements currently attached to the payment of a survivor annuity to a widower of a female participant who dies in service. The changes are compatible with the changes made in the definition of the term "widower" under section 1 of the bill.

Section 5 provides effective dates in phase with those established for the Civil Service retirement system in connection with identical changes. These dates assure that the treatment afforded surviving spouses under the CIA Retirement Act will not be different than that afforded surviving spouses under the Civil Service retirement system.

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20505

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

DRAFT

The Honorable Spiro T. Agnew
President of the Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

The Honorable Carl Albert
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

My dear Mr. President:

My dear Mr. Speaker:

This letter transmits for the consideration of the Congress a proposed draft bill to amend the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees, as amended. The proposed bill brings the CIA Retirement Act into consonance with certain provisions of the Civil Service retirement system.

Public Law 91-658, approved January 8, 1971, made significant changes concerning the payment of annuities to surviving spouses under the Civil Service retirement system. As a result, a widower of a female participant or retiree is accorded the same treatment as a widow of a deceased male participant or retiree and survivor annuity protection is extended to a spouse acquired after retirement under certain conditions.

A number of key features in the CIA Retirement Act, as passed in 1964, were adopted from provisions of law then applicable to Civil Service retirees. These features include the surviving spouse provisions amended by P. L. 91-658.

The reasons for changing the provisions relating to surviving spouses under the Civil Service retirement system apply with equal force to surviving spouses under the CIA system. Enactment of the proposed bill will assure that the CIA retirement system remains in line with the Civil Service system on the treatment of surviving spouses.

We would appreciate early and favorable consideration of the proposed bill. The Office of Management and Budget has advised that there is no objection to presenting the proposed bill to the Congress from the standpoint of the Administration's program.

Sincerely,

Richard Helms
Director
